

Beginning Monday, Oct. 29, and continuing until Saturday, Nov. 3 inclusive will be Demonstration Week for the Famous White Sewing Machine

MISS ZENER, an operator of marked ability and direct from the White Sewing Machine Co. factory, will be in attendance, ready to instruct any one in plain sewing or in the uses of the various attachments which have made the White so famous the world over. Samples of Miss Zener's work will be on exhibition in our windows, and you are cordially invited to inspect this work and ask all the questions you wish, for your own or for the information of others.

Between the above dates will be the White Club Week, the same plan as established by us in the sale of Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets. That is, $1.00 down and $1.00 per week until the machine is paid for.

We do not send out agents to solicit orders; therefore, the expense of this is saved to the customers.

We can sell you a White as low as $35.00, an absolute saving over other machines of from $10.00 to $15.00. Besides,

White Sewing Machines are guaranteed to be as good in every way and better in many ways than any other machine made.

Take this opportunity of getting acquainted with the White.

Special closing out sale, $35 sewing machine for $19.50. Save money by buying Andes ranges and heaters. Get my prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

Mrs. Perley Smith and Miss Sophia Macaulay passed through the city last evening on their way to their home in Graniteville after spending two weeks with friends in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, Mass.

There will be a meeting of Barre council, No. 401, K. of C., on Sunday evening after church services. District Deputy Scully and suite will install the officers. State Deputy Supreme Knight Driscoll will be present and address the members. John Hartigan, G. K.

At a meeting of the members of the freshmen class of Spaulding high school yesterday forenoon the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Gordon Beardon; vice-president, Miss Doris Burke; secretary, Wendell Smith and treasurer, George Douglas.

Supt. C. H. White of the city schools returned today from St. Albans, where he has been attending the annual convention of the state teachers' association. Supt. G. J. Seager and a corps of Barre Town teachers also returned after having been in attendance at the convention since Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Roberts of North Main street, who has been passing six weeks with her aunt in Alamosa, Colo., is expected to arrive in the city this evening. Miss Roberts has been taking a vacation from her duties as ticket agent at the Central Vermont station and expects to resume her duties Monday.

At the auction sale for C. E. Bixby on Beckley hill yesterday 18 cows, part of them fresh, balance to freshen in the winter, sold from $81 to $141 each. Several sold for over $100 and the bunch averaged around $90. Sixty tons of hay, all to one man, at $11.45 per ton in the barn. Eight tons of straw stacked outside sold for $5.10 per ton. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Llewellyn Densmore was pleasantly surprised last evening at his home on Ayers street, when about 25 of his friends gathered there. During the evening refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were served, while the playing of games provided an evening's entertainment for all. In behalf of the company Alex Paul presented Mr. Densmore a handsome set of cuff links, for which the host responded fittingly.

Old-timers in the service of the Barre & Chelsea and the M. & W. R. railroads acclaimed the return to Barre this morning of "Hercules," the monster locomotive of the air line. "Hercules" has spent many weeks in the car shops at Montpelier while undergoing extensive repairs and alterations. At one time the big engine was completely dismantled and before it left the shop it was carefully scrutinized for any defect that might have been overlooked by the car repairers. It had none. To-day the locomotive was limbered up in the freight yard, but it will return to the hill service next week.

Between acts at the presentation of "My Irish Cinderella" at the opera house Thursday evening C. M. Willey, treasurer of the Quarry Savings bank, made a stirring appeal for subscriptions to the second Liberty loan of 1917. He was one of several four-minute speakers who preached the Liberty loan doctrine before audiences in Barre during October and his auditors were quick to voice their approval of his message. Pledge cards were distributed at the entrance by representatives of the Barre loan committee.

Miss Beulah Martin returned to the city last evening after passing a vacation of 10 days with relatives in Rouses Point and other northern New York towns.

The third of a series of private dancing assemblies arranged by the Italian Gaiety club of Barre and Montpelier took the form of a poverty dance in Clan Gordon hall last evening, when 40 couples participated in the merrymaking. It was also the occasion of the club's second anniversary and during a lull in the dancing Henry Fasola of Barre was elected president and Miss Amelia Bertoli of Montpelier secretary for the ensuing year. All sorts of bizarre costumes were used by the club members to preserve an air of poverty about the dance hall and patrons who did not affect indigence were subject to a fine before they were permitted to dance. Forsell's orchestra played and at 10:30 o'clock a luncheon was served. The affair was in charge of the following committee: Miss Nellie Scamplin, Charles Catto, Paul Bianchi, Oswald Cabrin, Miss Mochetti and Miss Leonora Maroni of Montpelier.

Barre and Montpelier councils, Knights of Columbus, are to renew their series of friendly tournaments in pool and cribbage this fall as the result of a conference between committees in the club-room of the local council last evening. It will be the third successive year in which the two councils have entered the lists against each other and as has been the custom in the past, a banquet will be tendered the winning team by the losers. Eight matches are to constitute the series and the first meeting will be held on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 6. Throughout the series there are to be six tables of cribbage and three games are to constitute an evening at pool. Only losers may participate in more than one match. It is planned to hold the competitions weekly, with the usual recess around the holidays, the meetings to alternate between Barre and Montpelier. The committee from Barre council consists of Charles H. Wilkie, John Pappin, E. J. McNulty and David Wyllie and Montpelier council is represented by J. E. Kennedy, Daniel McGovern, G. A. Rivers and Harold Murphy.

Authentic Styles in New Models

There must be style authority behind the suit you buy. You can go from shop to shop and see a great variety of suits, a wide assortment of styles, colors, fabrics and trimming features. Many models may be pleasing, many may be becoming, too, when you try them on; but—do you know if they are correct? We believe so thoroughly in authority for style that we buy only from acknowledged fashion sources every suit in our department. In searching the market we use the Woolltex and Printz-Beiderman as our standard and all other makes must come up to that standard in every particular. Here for the rest of the week you will find some suit models that are unusually attractive and very reasonable in price.

Here Are Interesting Suit Values

We find at this time of the season that we have many Suit values that we are unable to duplicate because of the scarcity of good Suit materials. These we are putting on one rack at a reduction in price for the next few days.

If you want a Suit value, you should surely look over this rack of garments. Here are Suits that are values from $30.00 to $45.00 each; are Sample Suits that we did not duplicate, and now the materials are all gone. We had rather give you the advantage of our sacrifice in price than order other garments to fill in sizes in the cheaper Suits.

Suits on this rack that sold at $45.00 you can now buy at a reduction that will surely interest you. In this lot of Suits are a number of values that sold at $37.50 and $40.00. These you will find are unusual values, and the cloths are of the season's best, that were made before the last advance. These we will give you special prices on for the next few days.

In the cheaper Suits that sold at from $25.00 to $35.00 are a few odd garments that we cannot duplicate in the materials, so we are closing them at prices that will interest you. See these values before they have been picked over, and get just what you want.

A Few Odd Coats

We have about 30 Coats in values up to $27.50 that we carried from last season. The cloths are the best, and the style is not much different than this season. These we are closing at less than one-half price. See these Coat values if you want a good, warm Coat.

HARDWICK

Hon. Leslie M. Shaw Spoke to Large Audience Last Night.

A large crowd, made up of people from this and all the surrounding towns, gathered at the opera house last evening to listen to Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, ex-secretary of the U. S. treasury, and one of the foremost Americans of to-day, and his knowledge of existing conditions and his appeal for the fulfilling of the maximum of the Liberty loan mark, was interesting as well as very instructive. The committee in charge of the big rally were very greatly disappointed to receive a telegram Friday forenoon from Chaplain F. M. O'Reilly of Fort Ethan Allen that he had been ordered to report for duty outside the state, and therefore found it impossible for him to be present. Secretary of State Frederick G. Fleetwood of Morrisville supplied in his place and delivered a very patriotic address. The committee were also disappointed in not being able to secure an orchestra, but otherwise the program was carried out in good shape. The boy scouts were on hand, as usual, to sell or receive applications for Liberty bonds.

Mrs. Alexander Bothwell of Bristol, Conn., visited friends here Thursday and Friday.

The receipts at the first day of the rummage sale amounted to $102. The stock was pretty well sold out, but the people are responding generously and goods continue to be brought in most of the time during the day. To-night marks the close and what is left will be sold at auction.

Plans for canvassing this district in relation to the conservation of food pledges among the people are all completed and Monday morning those assigned to the work will start out on their trip.

Mrs. Alex Fraser and little son, who have been visiting relatives here for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Barre Friday.

The ladies of the United Workers of the Congregational church have decided on November 8 as the date of their annual sale and supper, and it is expected this will be a banner event.

The Hardwick steam laundry, conducted by Wood and Peaslee for the past year or more, has been sold to F. R. Wood of Kirby, who takes possession of the business next Monday morning.

According to reports at the two banks here Friday morning it looks as though the minimum mark of $86,000 would be reached and passed by a comfortable margin Saturday night. The boy scouts have sold over 200 bonds thus far.

Miss Emily Kull visited in Burlington Thursday and Friday, having accompanied her mother that far on her return trip to her home in Pottsville, Pa.

Misses Jeannette Slapp and Margaret Gallagher attended the state teachers' convention in St. Albans Friday, going from there to Montreal, P. Q., for an over-Sunday visit with friends.

Misses Edgerly and Griffith, teachers in the academy, attended the state teachers' convention in St. Albans this week.

Mrs. Merle Jones of Hyde Park visited in town a part of this week.

O. J. Paquette was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury Friday.

G. H. Wilson and family are making an auto trip to points in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Mrs. H. J. Titus is in charge of the Wilson store during their absence.

F. L. Dunn of Richmond was a business visitor in town the last of the week.

D. L. McGuire returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington a few days since. His condition is still very critical.

Mrs. Annie Dimond of Bakersfield is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Paquette's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Marshall start for Florida next Monday, where they will spend the winter.

Roderick McLeod and Howard Lewis have gone to Bristol, Conn., where they have employment.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

There will be a Halloween social at the Gale schoolhouse in Williamstown, Tuesday evening, Oct. 30, at 7 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Red Cross. Entertainment will be given by the children and everyone is cordially invited to be present. Admission, adults 15c, children 10c.

EAST BARRE.

At a special meeting of Court Phil Sheridan, No. 8, F. of A., Oct. 26, it was voted to invest $300 in Liberty bonds for the members of the court.

Meant Well.

"What do you know of the character of this man?" was asked of a witness at a police court the other day. "What do I know of his character? I know it to be unbleached, your honor," he replied with much emphasis.—Christian Register.

Music furnished for all occasions by Montpelier M. band orchestra. Karl Forsell, manager, phone Montpelier 252-W.

GRANITEVILLE.

There will be a meeting of Barre council, No. 401, K. of C., on Sunday evening after church services. District Deputy Scully and suite will install the officers. State Deputy Supreme Knight Driscoll will be present and address the members. John Hartigan, G. K.
